

On the Subject of Four Corners

Never Eat Soggy Waffles.

- You must hold the button until the lights change to the correct colors, then release the button.
This must be done four times.
- While holding the button, it will illuminate a color, and two of the lights will flash colors.
- Use the table below to determine when to release the button, based on the color the button lights up, and the position of the colored lights.

Releasing the Button

Release the button when the lights match the given colors; order does not matter.
